President's PERSPECTIVE

By Molly Fine

The IDCTA Annual Awards Banquet was a great success! We had a great turnout, the awards ran smoothly and there were a variety of raffle prizes to be won. The raffle was especially fun this year because all that was announced was the winner's number. The winners then discovered what they'd won when they picked up their prizes. The meals were excellent, with a great salad, followed by a beef, chicken or veggie entree and a wonderful chocolate dessert, thanks to the Hilton. Carol and Frank Allgauer provided the wine at dinner.

Our annual awards included Schooling Show participants for the first time, and we hope that more competitors will submit their scores next year. The first place prize was a hand-painted plate by Federique's Studio. Each plate was customized for the winner, featuring a depiction of a horse the same color as the winner's horse. The winner's name and the level they won were also painted on the plate. Second place was awarded fly veils, and third place winners received brushes and combs engraved with IDCTA.

A great time was had by all.

On April 28-29, IDCTA will present a clinic with George Williams at Tempel Farms. This is George's second time in this area for an IDCTA clinic. He was here two years ago, and the clinic was enjoyed by all — competitors, auditors and volunteers. Let's give George a big welcome again this year! You will find more information and forms in this issue of the Scribe.

The new board is in place and promises to be an active one. The board is looking at our Grant program to see what kind of enhancements we can make. Katie Miskovic is leading the review. If you have any input you would like to share, please get in touch with her.

Activities that IDCTA sponsors and organizes are broken down by committee. Fatima Kranz is leading the Dressage Committee, Alison Volpentesta heads the Eventing Committee and Cecelia Conway is in charge of the Schooling Show committee. As always, we welcome your help and your input on our committees. It is also a great way to earn volunteer hours for year end awards, so please volunteer. We are run and governed by volunteers, and we all need to find a way to contribute in order to make our association the best it can be.

Thank you for all that you have done in 2017, and thank you in advance for your time and effort in 2018.

The best to you in this New Year and I hope it is a happy riding year.

For those who were interested in the horse or animal portrait from the silent auction at the banquet, the artist is Lori Keelan. If you are interested in a project, her contact information is lorikeelan@gmail.com, or 815-482-3278.

From the Editor:

Try as we might, we are not able to place every photo taken at the banquet in the Scribe, and although we try very hard, it is possible that we have mis-captioned a photo or made a mistake in spelling someone's name. If that is the case, we want to make it right. Please contact Mary Jo Downen at typagraphics@gmail.com and let me know, and I will make sure to correct it in our next issue of the Scribe.

Congratulations to all award winners!

The 2018 Wayne Eventing Derby is Coming April 20-22

By Katie Lindsay

As I write this, the "Winter of the Frozen Tundra" is going on outside with all its various shades of dreary grey. With such a desolate backdrop, it seems surreal to be touting an outdoor equestrian sport, but such is the reality of our fickle climate!

Entries for the 2018 Wayne Eventing Derby and Derby Within a Derby open March 12. Through April 12, they will be offered at a discounted price. From April 13 through April 16, they will cost an additional $15. Stabling at Lamplight Equestrian Center for Derby entries is included. One night stabling for the Derby Within a Derby will be available.

Derby divisions offered are Starter, Beginner Novice, Novice, Training and Preliminary/Training. The latter division, new this year, will offer 2018 USEF Preliminary Test A, one jumping round at Training height, and a second round at Preliminary height.

Derby Within a Derby, Starter and Beginner Novice entries will all ride 2018 USEF Beginner Novice Test A; Novice will ride the 2018 USEF Novice Test, and Training the 2018 USEF Training Test. This is the first event in Area IV to offer the new 2018 Dressage tests, which can be found on the Derby website: www.wayneeventingderby.org.

Returning this year are the popular "extras" that make the Derby special. The Ride A Test before a USEF judge and supervised jump schooling take place on Friday, 4/20. Beginner Novice, Novice and Training divisions will again offer best score awards to T.I.P. (Thoroughbred Incentive Program) eligible Thoroughbreds, presented by The Jockey Club. Sunday will feature the Move Up Challenge, a successful addition last year, which gives riders the chance to jump a course at the level above their entry. Finally, shoppers can indulge their passion at Little Foxes' lovely vendor area.

Prize lists and entry blanks will be available on the Derby website along with more detailed Derby information as it becomes available.

President of the United States Dressage Federation and USEF National Youth Coach, George Williams is a prominent figure in international dressage competition.

Mr. Williams has been studying dressage since 1973 when he traveled to Germany to enroll at the Reitinstitute von Neindorff', where he earned his German Bronze Rider Medal. Upon returning to the U.S., Mr. Williams began training with Karl Mikolka. He also trained in Germany with the former U.S. Dressage team coach and Olympic Gold medalist, Klaus Balkenhol.

Mr. Williams' career highlights include three-time Dressage at Devon Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle, 2005 United States Equestrian Federation/Collecting Gaits National Grand Prix Champion, team bronze at CHIO Aachen, 5th at the 2003 World Cup in Sweden.

In 1981, Mr. Williams was a resident trainer and rider for The Tempel Lipizzans in Old Mill Creek, IL. From 2000 into 2009, Mr. Williams rode and trained for the Smiths at their Gypsy Woods Farm in Richwood, OH. From May 2009 to 2014 he rode and trained for Elizabeth Juliano's Havensafe Farm of Middlefield Ohio and Wellington, Florida.

Mr. Williams currently teaches and clinics with Williams Dressage LLC.

Become an IDCTA Member!

There are many benefits to becoming a member of IDCTA!

Besides the benefits listed under each membership category below, IDCTA offers overall benefits that you may not know about:

Year End Awards: Any member is eligible to earn year end awards by submitting their scores at the end of the year (see awards rules). There are awards for Dressage, Eventing and Schooling shows. Specifics are as follows:

Dressage – For those who have participated in USDF-recognized shows, there are awards for each level and division based on your submitted scores. (Champion and Reserve Champion and third through sixth place)

Eventing - For those who have participated in USEA-recognized shows, there are awards for each level and division based on your submitted scores. (Champion and Reserve Champion and third through sixth place)

Schooling Show - For those who have participated in IDCTA-sanctioned shows (shows listed in the IDCTA Schooling Show Series Omnibus), there are awards for each level and division (CT, Dressage and Mini-Events, based on your submitted scores - Champion and Reserve Champion and third through sixth place). Schooling show participants can also participate in the Schooling Show Championships by submitting their qualifying scores.

Classified Ads in the Scribe – Any member can submit a classified ad of 50 words or less (Additional words are 10¢ each.).

Service Directory Listing – Paid IDCTA members may list their product or service in the IDCTA Service Directory, which appears both in the Scribe and on the website.

IDCTA Grant Program

The IDCTA Board of Directors has updated our Grant Program for our membership. We are very excited about this program and hope that more IDCTA members begin sending in applications for upcoming clinics, whether IDCTA, USEA, USDF or USEF sanctioned.

As always, the funds must be used for tuition only. IDCTA members can qualify every two years. To qualify for a grant, clinics must be with trainers from greater than 100 miles from the Chicagoland area. The clinics must be produced by IDCTA, USEA, USDF, USEF or must be an approved clinic. In return, IDCTA asks that the recipient of the grant write a detailed article about the clinic for the next issue of the Scribe. The article should be a minimum of one typed page and may include photographs (please provide photographer credit).

Other qualifications are as follows: An applicant must be a member in good standing of IDCTA for a minimum of six months at the time the clinic is to be held. An application and copy of the clinic entry must be submitted a minimum of 60 days prior to the opening date of the clinic. This will allow the Board of Directors enough time to review and vote on the applicant's request at the next board meeting.

One grant per clinic may be awarded. Not every qualified clinic will be awarded a grant. The two main factors that will be considered when awarding grants are the following: IDCTA volunteer hours totaling a minimum of 5 in the past calendar year and each applicant's past riding experience without regard for number of shows entered or success in the show ring.

The amount funded by IDCTA per clinic is $200, or the cost of the clinic tuition, whichever is less. The grant funds may only be used for the clinic the applicant anticipates participating in as a rider, and not an auditor. Funds may not be used for stabling, hauling or other associated expenses, other than the cost of the clinic tuition. Grant funding may vary each year depending on the amount available and number of qualified applicants, and will be awarded on a first come, first served basis. Funds not used in a given year will be rolled over to the next year.

In cases where the grant recipient does not participate in the requested clinic or an article is not submitted within a month of participating in the clinic, the funds granted shall be returned to IDCTA immediately. This will allow the money to be used for another applicant.

All grant applicants will be notified of the decision by phone or email after the board has voted. Checks will be mailed to the applicant only after the Scribe article has been received.
