

IDCTA presents a clinic with
George Williams

April 28-29, 2018
Tempel Farms
Old Mill Creek, IL

Opening date: January 15, 2018
Closing date: April 15, 2018

Clinic format:

8 individual rides each day

Rider cost for 2 rides and lunch each day (for you and your groom):

$525 for IDCTA members

$600 for non-members

Stabling is an additional $30/day in straw

Auditor cost:

IDCTA members: $30/day with preregistration; $35/day at the door

Non-members: $35/day with preregistration; $40/day at the door

President of the United States Dressage Federation and USEF National Youth Coach, George Williams is a prominent figure in international dressage competition.

Mr. Williams has been studying dressage since 1973 when he traveled to Germany to enroll at the Reitinstitut von Neindorff, where he earned his German Bronze Rider Medal. Upon returning to the U.S., Mr. Williams began training with Karl Mikolka. He also trained in Germany with the former U.S. Dressage team coach and Olympic Gold medalist, Klaus Balkenhol.

Mr. Williams' career highlights include three-time Dressage at Devon Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle, 2005 United States Equestrian Federation/Collecting Gaits National Grand Prix Champion, team bronze at CHIO Aachen, 5th at the 2003 World Cup in Sweden.

In 1981, Mr. Williams was a resident trainer and rider for The Tempel Lipizzans in Old Mill Creek, IL. From 2000 into 2009, Mr. Williams rode and trained for the Smiths at their Gypsy Woods Farm in Richwood, OH. From May 2009 to 2014 he rode and trained for Elizabeth Juliano's Havensafe Farm of Middlefield Ohio and Wellington, Florida.

Mr. Williams currently teaches and clinics with Williams Dressage LLC.

Contact Cindy Lambert (847-394-2090; cindylambert706@gmail.com)